Tartan Portraits are a Glasgow based photography business for couples, families, thrill seekers, corporates and everything else! Tartan Portraits has been created to offer simple packages ready to be tailored for your needs, with easy transparent booking, providing services that go beyond just booking a photographer. Tartan portraits can make almost any session or event a seamless and memorable experience. I love trying creative things and adapt to any given situation and try to excel in everything we do. This is your day, let's have fun with it and make your photography day special.
